

RACING AHEAD

PHOTO BY REN LONG / XINHUA

A bronze chariot and horses from the No 1 pit of the mausoleum of Qinshihuang, the first emperor of the Qin Dynasty, is unveiled at the Expo's China Pavilion on June 1. The national treasure, presented outside Shaanxi province for the first time since it was unearthed 30 years ago, will remain at the pavilion until the end of the Expo in late October.

COVER

China drives the technology for clean vehicles

The Expo is gearing up as a testing ground for carmakers as China aims to commercialize a green technology that could give developing countries an edge in auto production. PAGES 10, 11

SPECIAL

Africa in Expo focus

Visitors to the Mauritania Pavilion can experience the traditional and changing lives of African people. PAGE 6

7 DAYS

7 days, 7 great events in Shanghai

Our editors pick the best events at the Expo and around Shanghai each day. This week's list includes Camus' Caligula (right), Italian contemporary art, and the Green Now! concert. PAGE 13

PHOTOS

You shoot 'em, we print 'em. Send us your Expo photos

Think you have a good shot and want to share it with the world? Find out how you can be part of Exposure, the official English media partner of Expo 2010 Shanghai. PAGE 16