

CITY VIEW

To make Shenzhen a vital, scenic and creative place to live, visit and play, China Daily and the Shenzhen bureau of city administration are conducting a joint survey. Thirty attractions are listed online for you to vote on at <http://211.147.20.198/dyh/index.shtml>.

Longyuan Road 龙园路

Driving along Longyuan Road reminds visitors of cruising Sunset Strip in Los Angeles. Longyuan Road is a stylish street lined with tropical plants. It is also a major traffic route that feeds the regional economy. Roses are the most commonly seen flowers here, so Longyuan Road has been nicknamed "Rose Road".

Bantian handmade cultural street

坂田手造文化街

The street is located on Daoyayuan Road in Bantian, Longgang district. It combines both oriental and Western styles, while adhering to its own culture, taste and heritage. There are five sections to this street. These include sections dedicated to international style, Chinese culture, and conventions and exhibitions. It is spacious and clean.

Longtan Park 龙潭公园

Longtan Park is located in the city center's Longgang district, where some of the most prosperous roads meet. The park is famous for its lakes, which cover about 40,000 square meters of the park's total 180,000 square meters. Strolling around this beautiful park, you can see some exquisite traditional Chinese-style gardens and buildings, including the Tour Court, Hexagonal Pavilion, Zigzag Bridge and Kite Square.
